

Tax and Accountancy

The often complicated nature of the Spanish tax system means that relevant tax advice is essential. As one of our traditional areas of expertise and excellence, we are able to guarantee reliability and reassurance to our clients.

We offer the following services, among others, to both individuals and companies:

- Tax planning for individuals and companies.
- Private taxation; personal income, real estate and Inheritance.
- Tax Inspections, claims and litigation.
- Taxation accrued from mergers and acquisitions, partnership dissolution and business re-structuring.
- Advice on tax implications in business.
- Remuneration packages for executives, legal representatives and board members.
- Due diligence analysis.
- General accountancy advice.
