

With more than fifty years of accumulated experience in the property sector, we are able to effectively intervene and advise at all stages of the process.

The services we provide are:

- Documental and legal advice of all property matters, purchase and sale, permutation agreements and share capital.
- Legal advice on property development, construction, sub-division and certification for new constructions.
- General legal advice on property promotions and co-ordination of Investment groups.
- Negotiation and legal advice on all types of leasing agreements.
- Legal advice and monitoring of projects promoted by third parties or purchase of property investment companies.

